

West Virginia Girl

From the album 100 PERCENT, written by Gary L. Vincent, BMI

Line 1: Well they say that life's a river that flows deep and wide
And you have to walk through fire just to reach the other side
Now I've been around this great big world and I've seen a million things
And I've touched that very fire and this memory's what it brings

Chorus: I want my West Virginia Girl, the cutest in the world
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl
She can make a man a king, fulfill all his dreams
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl

Line 2: Way up in the mountains, the snow is coming down
And she always lifts me up when the blue days roll around
Now I've been to the desert, where it's so cold in the night
But in those diamond eyes that shine her memory fills my life

Chorus: I want my West Virginia Girl, the cutest in the world
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl
She can make a man a king, fulfill all his dreams
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl

Line 3: Now I've been on the road for so many months I know
And I've been knocking them dead but on this stage I stand alone
I know she's out there somewhere as the lights begin to dim
But in my mind, I remember when . . .

Chorus: I had my West Virginia Girl, the cutest in the world
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl
She can make a man a king, fulfill all his dreams
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl

Tag: Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl
Oh, how I want my West Virginia Girl